

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 17, 2019

Washington, D.C. - Today, the Veterans Education Project (VEP) is honored to announce a new partnership with Webster University. Founded in 1915, Webster is a private non-profit university with students studying at campus locations in North America, Europe, Asia and Africa and in a robust learning environment online making it an ideal option for Troops both home and abroad.

Daniel Elkins, the Executive Director of VEP, said, "our partnership with Webster is extremely exciting because even though this institution is over 100 years old they are still looking to innovate and finding new ways to better serve Student Veterans for years to come."

Veterans and prospective students can learn more about enrolling in Webster University degree programs by visiting online at <https://www.webster.edu/>. Learn more about the Veterans Education Project and its work supporting Veterans by visiting online at <http://veteranseducationproject.org>.

Media Contact:
Stephen Patterson
Steve@thevep.org